

HANNAH MCGLADE BIO:

Dr Hannah McGlade is the Senior Indigenous Research Fellow at Curtin University and an active member of the Perth Noongar community. Her book *Our Greatest Challenge, Aboriginal children and human rights* was based on her Ph.D at Curtin university, and she received the Stanner Award in 2011. Hannah has been at the forefront of the development of several key organisations in Perth and WA, in relation to Aboriginal women legal supports, Noongar radio and Stolen Generations and healing. She was the 2016 Senior Indigenous Fellow of the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights.