

MARZIYA MOHAMMEDALI

Marziya Mohammedali is a wordsmith, photographer, designer, educator and artist. Their creative practice focuses on narratives of dissent, identity, migration and transition, working for social justice. They have documented several protest movements within Perth, and have been involved in creative and digital activism for various issues.