

SARA SALEH

Sara Saleh is an Arab-Australian poet and long-time campaigner for refugee rights and racial justice who has worked with human rights organisations in Australia and across the Middle East. Sara's first poetry collection was released in 2016, and her poems have been published in English and Arabic in several publications. Sara is co-curator of upcoming anthology Arab-Australian-Other (Picador 2019) and is currently working on her debut novel as a Sweatshop Fellow. Sara is completing a Juris Doctor at UNSW. She sits on the board of Australia's largest national advocacy organisation GetUp!